Guidelines for Ordering and Publishing Images from the State House Art Collection

On behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts Art Commission is pleased to provide images from the State House Art Collection and State House Flag Collection under the following terms:

Requests for images should be submitted at least two weeks in advance of anticipated deadlines, and are handled in the order in which they are received. Please plan ahead. Last minute, emergency requests will not be honored.

- 1) User should submit a request in writing explaining form of publication, publisher or producer, anticipated date of publication or airing, images requested, format requested, and context in which images will be used. Each request will be reviewed for appropriate use of images. Requests for commercial usage with no historical, educational or scholarly interest will not be considered. Requests for blanket permission in connection with a project will not be honored, nor will requests for permission "in perpetuity." The Art Commission expects to be informed in advance of each separate form of usage in connection with stated project, including any exhibition, advertising, promotion, or manipulation to other media formats.
- 2) Permission is granted exclusively to the User (requesting individual, company or institution) for one-time, non-exclusive use of the image for the purpose stated above. Rights may not be sold or transferred. Rights are granted for a period of not longer than five (5) years from date of contractual agreement. Future editions, re-prints, re-issue, transfer to video, CD-ROM, or other usage's of the image in connection with the original project must be made known and approved in advance by the Art Commission.
- 3) The Commonwealth charges a user fee for reproduction or publishing images from the collection, based on the attached schedule. User must submit proof of government or non-profit status to obtain a waiver of this fee. The Art Commission also requests one courtesy copy of each separate publication (including videos and CD-rom) or documentation in exhibition.
- 4) Images requested for web-site use MUST be posted as low-resolution files, thumbnails, or MUST down-load protected. Except by cropping for detail, images may not be transformed or manipulated in any way that will distort the original appearance or character of the artwork, including duo-tone printing in other than black and white ink, without prior notification and approval of the Art Commission. In respect for the American flag, images of the national colors from any war may NOT be overwritten with text, screened, or over-printed with other images.

5) In cases of print publication or other static reproduction, objects must be identified by both title and Collection. Identification lines must appear with the image. Courtesy lines and photo credits may appear in acknowledgements).

6) User shall confirm usage of images from the art collection, and its understanding and agreement to all terms and conditions, by signing and returning the agreement to the Art Commission.

7) The User will indemnify and hold harmless the Commonwealth from and against any or all claims, losses, liabilities, damages and expenses, including attorney fees actually incurred, which may result from any breach of the agreement once signed by both parties.

THIS FORM IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY, AND DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AGREEMENT OR PERMISSION. A separate form listing project titles, authors, images agreed upon, credit lines, etc. will be forwarded to the user for signature. Please telephone the above number with any questions.

Thank you.
